

U.S. NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS The Adventure of a Lifetime

Join the Naval Sea Cadet Corps and experience the Adventure, Excitement, Teamwork, Activities, and Pride of being part of a great youth program for teenagers. With more than 280 units nationwide, you can find a unit in most major cities and towns.

You can patrol the sea and inland waters aboard naval ships and small boats; receive basic and advanced airman training, fly aboard military aircraft; tour submarines; work with the Navy Seabees or SEALs; receive port operations, amphibious, medical or music training; learn more about leadership; but most importantly, have fun!

Contact your local Naval Sea Cadet Corps unit today. Bring along a friend, meet some new ones, and EXPERIENCE THE ADVENTURE OF A LIFETIME WITH THE NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS.

THE NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS is a civilian non-profit, federally chartered training and education organization sponsored by the Navy League of the United States and supported by the U.S. Navy, Coast Guard, and other military services. Its objectives are to: (1) Develop an interest in seamanship, aviation, and other related subjects; (2) Build in every cadet a sense of pride, patriotism, courage, self-reliance, discipline, confidence, and other qualities which mold good, strong character and citizenship; (3) Instill in cadets an appreciation of military history, customs, traditions, and the importance of a strong sea service team; and (4) Familiarize cadets with the benefits and prestige of a military career.
